A Good Rat Story.

Many people have visited Wharton's stables, in the rear of the hotel on Market square, to witness the strange and unheard of sight of a good sized rat making himself comfortable in a nook in the stable where a cat is raising a litter of kittens. The cat so far has not resented the presence of the rodent, and sometimes it occupies tabby's nest when she is absent and lies perfectly still near the kittens. Persons who have seen this strange affiliation of bitter foes declare they have seen the cat nursing the rat.

Retail Merchants Meeting.

The retail merchants met in their hall 1210 Chapline street last evening. Matters of vital importance were freely discussed. The book of abstracts of unsettled accounts is in the hands of the printer. A copy as far as completed was furnished for inspection. This book will contain the names on all "abstracts" received up to the present time. It will be very interesting reading. Any person who allows his or her name to appear on this book, will not be able to get credit from at least 175 of our best retail merchants.

A Bad Runaway.

A team of horses belonging to Mr. Charles Lukens, the Island grocer, ran away yesterday on Zane street. Mr. Lukens, who was near by when the team started, attempted to stop them, but was thrown down and the wheels passed over his legs, inflicting painful bruises, but breaking no bones. The team continued its mad pace until the horses collided with a tree, resulting in the almost instant death of one of the animals named "Bill," valued at $100. A small boy who was in the wagon escaped with a bad fright. Mr. Lukens's escape from injury was miraculous.

THE SHERIDAN MEETING

At the Fifth Ward Market House Friday Evening.

THE REPUBLICANS WILL RALLY

To Hear General George A. Sheridan, of New York, One of the Most Eloquent Speakers on the Stump—The Arrangements Being Made for a Turn-out on that Occasion—First Appearance of the Young Men's Marching Club.

The Republican meeting to be held in the new addition of the Fifth ward market house on Friday evening, will be one of the events of the campaign. The orator of the evening, Gen. George A. Sheridan, of New York city, is considered one of the most eloquent and convincing speakers on the stump; some authorities stamping him as the equal of the "silver-tongued" Ingersoll. There is no doubt that he will be given the reception his fame and talents deserve. The new addition to the market house is well fitted for meeting purposes and all who attend can be assured of comfort. A platform will be erected and every effort made to provide for the convenience of the audience.

On this occasion the Young Men's Marching Club will appear for the first time. They will meet at the Central club room, in the Lutz building, Market street, at 7 o'clock sharp, and, when formed in line, headed by Myers' band, will march up Market street to Fourteenth, down Fourteenth to Main, and up Main to Ninth street, where they will be joined by the Washington district Republicans. Thence the line will proceed up Ninth to Market and down that street to Tenth, where the Madison district and Ohio county Republican clubs will fall in. They will then proceed to the McLure House, where General Sheridan will join the procession in a carriage and be escorted to the Fifth ward market house.

The Eighth ward Republicans will meet at Nolte's hall at 7:30 p. m. and march to the meeting. The Fifth and Sixth ward club room is in the vicinity of the meeting and the Republicans of those wards are expected to turn out en masse to swell the throng. The Fulton and Elm Grove clubs will, in all likelihood, attend the meeting in a body. Invitations have been extended the E. B. Dovenor and Central clubs, of Benwood, to attend, and there is no doubt but what they will respond with a large turnout.

This will be an important meeting and every Republican should appoint himself a committee of one to see that his Republican neighbor attends.

MADISON WILL MARCH.

The John A. Logan Club Re-organized last night and will turn out Friday Night.

The Republicans of Madison district held a largely attended meeting at their headquarters in the upper market hall last evening. A temporary organization was effected, with Capt. Thomas Prince as chairman and Clarence E. Irwin as secretary. The only business transacted was to make arrangements to participate in the big Sheridan blow-out next Friday evening. All Republicans living on the Island and in the Second ward are invited to join them on that evening. Temporary line officers were elected for that night: Captain, Hugh Hawkins; first lieutenant, H. P. Mayer; second lieutenant, Louis Schenck. The club adopted the name, John A. Logan Club, and will meet next Tuesday evening to effect a permanent organization. All who march with the Logan club on Friday night will be furnished with handsome badges. They will meet at the Market house at 7:30 p. m., sharp. After the organization Hon. A. R. Campbell made a brief but stirring speech, which was frequently applauded.

To-night the Republicans of Union district will meet at Lutz's Hall, on Market street, for the purpose of organization and forming a marching club to participate in the parade on Friday. It is expected a large crowd will be present.

Tariff Graduates Meeting.

The Young Men's Republican Escort club and Tariff Graduates held their regular weekly business meeting last night and transacted a large amount of important business. After the usual routine had been run through the club perfected all arrangements for their first public appearance, which is to take place on next Friday evening. They also appointed a committee to attend the meeting of the committees of all other clubs which is to take place at the Central club rooms to-morrow night to make arrangements for the big demonstration which is to occur in about ten days. The club also appointed a committee to get things in shape for their turn out in the big Columbian parade on October 21st.

First Ward Republicans.

The Republicans of Washington district will hold their first public meeting this campaign this evening at their club room, No. 519 Main street. Among the speakers will be Mr. Edward S. Elliott, of Kingwood, and Mr. Charles Burdett Hart. Mr. Elliott is one of the most entertaining speakers in the state, and is fresh from a campaign tour in the interior, and the Republicans of the First ward should make it a point to give him and Mr. Hart a rousing reception. Let every voter be on hand to hear the issues of the day discussed.

Meeting at Elm Grove.

The Republicans of Elm Grove are hustling these days and manifest a great deal of enthusiasm. A public meeting will be held to-morrow, Thursday evening, which will be addressed by Mr. H. C. Harvey, candidate for state senate, and Mr. S. G. Smith, of this city, candidate for the legislature.

Business Men's Club.

The committee appointed by the Business Men's Club to prepare a plan of campaign will meet at Republican headquarters, No. 32 Tenth street, Thursday night, and will report the result of their conference to the club next Monday evening.
